Guest Speaker Shannon Chambers:

Shannon Chambers has 15 years of combined legal and administrative experience in public sector employment. She has extensive knowledge of state government and the legislative process, and a proven track record of implementing positive organizational change.

She most recently served as the Chief Financial Officer of the Department of Business and Industry. Previously, she was the Deputy Director of Administration for the Department. In both roles, her duties included budget development and administration, and personnel management for 13 divisions and the Director's office. Prior to that, she worked at the Nevada Legislative Counsel Bureau.

Her legal experience includes working as a Senior Staff Attorney and Deputy Attorney General for the State of California representing various agencies, boards, and commissions in administrative, state, and federal courts, and presiding over hearings and committees. She has also served as an Administrative Law Judge presiding over and issuing decisions in labor and personnel cases.
